

MEDICAL DIAGNOSTIC SERVICES

If necessary, medical diagnostic services are provided by a licensed physician to determine a child's developmental status & eligibility for early intervention services. These services can be used to confirm or rule out diagnoses that make children eligible for early intervention services.

